Our Services

At Lorocco, we cater for a range of care needs including extensive care and palliative care. Our friendly nursing and care staff provide loving care and compassion 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Our multidisciplinary team includes doctors and allied health professionals, such as occupational therapist, physiotherapist, podiatrist and dietitian. Lorocco's person-centered approach enables us to meet each resident's individual needs in partnership with their loved ones.

Why Lorocco?

This home is located at the bottom of Scrub Road in Carindale and is centrally located close to the CBD, shopping centres, hospitals and specialist services. The atmosphere at Lorocco is welcoming and provides residents and their families with quality care. Cafes and shops are within walking distance of the facility. Large common areas are available for residents to utilise at their leisure. All food is cooked fresh on site.

Lorocco is a non-smoking home.

“Truly person-centred care”

Lorocco has a friendly, welcoming atmosphere with easy access for friends and family to come and go as they please. We offer a very secure environment to provide additional safety for people needing memory support. Our 50 bed home is located close to Carindale Shopping Centre, hospitals and other local services. Several of our residents’ loved ones live just next door at Con Noi retirement complex, knowing they are being well cared for.

Activities

At Lorocco, we have a large and versatile common area where residents socialise. You can use it at your leisure or join in one of the many group activities. Activities are planned by the residents and the Lifestyle Coordinator and include: concerts, cooking, word and card games, quizzes, movies, worship services, theme days and much more. There’s a hairdressing service available and you can also access email and internet services.
