“Truly person-centred care”

Marebello is perfectly set on eight acres of landscaped grounds in the cool, breezy bay-side suburb of Victoria Point in the Redland Bay area. Our home has 138 spacious, air-conditioned, private and shared suites, with a private balcony or patio. These rooms are located in five boutique houses across the site which gives Marebello a great community atmosphere.

Activities

With our large expanse of landscaped grounds, you can enjoy our walkways and discover a multitude of perfect spots to leaf through a magazine, listen to the birds or meet with your family. We also have a range of outings and activities to keep you entertained including exercise classes, movies, concerts and games. Our on-site facilities include a hairdressing salon and numerous lounge and club areas where residents gather to socialise and take part in activities.

Additional Services

Our Servizi Additional Services Package supports residents by offering additional choices over what is standard and includes more extensive menu choices, alcoholic drinks with dinner and access to additional snacks and fruit to name a few. We can also tailor a package to meet your needs and preferences.
