Our Services

Esida caters for a range of care needs including extensive care and palliative care. We also look after more independent residents who have the peace-of-mind knowing help and nursing care are available when needed. Qualified nursing and care staff provide loving care and understanding 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Our approach to person-centered care enables us to meet each resident's individual needs with respect, love, dignity and independence.

Why Esida?

Esida is a caring, friendly aged care residence that has been a part of the community for over 40 years. The popular Carindale and Mt Gravatt Central Shopping areas are conveniently located nearby. A bus service just outside Esida can take you to the surrounding suburbs or the city within minutes. Hospitals and services are nearby and the city is just 10km away.

Esida is a non-smoking home.

"Truly person-centred care"

Esida cares for 78 residents and offers both private and shared accommodation. There are several large common areas for residents to enjoy lifestyle activities and companionship. The open-air setting lends itself to a relaxed social atmosphere between staff and residents.

Activities

Residents have access to a range of activities and outings including movies, concerts, exercise classes, games, church services, theme days and happy hour.

Our café, lounges and communal areas provide relaxing meeting places where residents can have a nice "cuppa" with family and friends.

The large entertainment area on the lower ground floor is where Esida's physiotherapists hold regular exercise classes.

The hair salon is very popular and there is access to email and Internet services to stay in touch with family and friends.
